Notes for Joseph Jenks:

Joseph Jenks, Sr. had organized and operated the first American iron works at Saugus, Massachusetts. In 1953, this iron works was excavated and rebuilt to what is now the Saugus Iron Works National Historic Site is a National Historic Site located about 10 miles (16 kilometers) northeast of Downtown Boston in Saugus, Massachusetts. It is the site of the first integrated ironworks in North America, founded by John Winthrop the Younger and in operation between 1646 and approximately 1670. It includes the reconstructed blast furnace, forge, rolling mill, shear, slitter and a quarter-ton drop hammer.

The facility is powered by seven large waterwheels, some of which are rigged to work in tandem with huge wooden gears connecting them. It has a wharf to load the iron onto ocean-going vessels, as well as a large, restored 17th-century house.

This is a must see for Joseph Jenks descendants. The museum has a Joseph Jenks display with artifacts made by Joseph and a video describing the Iron Works with mention of the Jenks'.
